

Please do NOT weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. Since the enactment of the law, the unwanted solicitation calls I have received has dropped 90%. I actually get to eat dinner without interruption. When I travel, my answering machine is not filled with dial tones and hangups. American's deserve not to be harrassed by phone solicitors. Please keep the Indiana law, so that Hoosiers can maintain their privacy.